

Luetta Brittain

GORMAN — Luetta Weeks Brittain, 78, of Gorman, formerly of Ranger, died at 1:04 a.m. Tuesday in De Leon Hospital. Services will be at 3 p.m. Wednesday in Gorman Church of Christ.

Gary Adams of Cisco will officiate. Burial will be in Alameda Cemetery, directed by Higginbotham Funeral Home.

Born June 26, 1900, in Ranger, she married William Lee Brittain June 19, 1920, in Ranger. She was a member of the Church of Christ and Order of Eastern Star. She had lived in a nursing home in Gorman for one year, moving from Ranger.

Mr. Brittain died July 22, 1954.

Survivors include three daughters, Shirley Cowyer of Stephenville, Rosa Aguilar of Eastland and Wanda Frasier of Point Comfort; a sister, Jennie Kimbrough of Ranger; six grandchildren; and 12 great-grandchildren.

A son, a granddaughter, three sisters and eight brothers preceded her in death.

Pallbearers will be Tom Dunn, Bill Lyerla, Buck Reed, R. Hunt, Bill Nemir and Thurman Jay.