

Daniel Thomas Smith

Daniel Thomas Smith died Dec. 6, 1938, at 3:15 a.m. at his home north of Stamford after an illness of more than one year. The deceased was born in Missouri, July 14, 1882. He was married to Miss Lulu Cooper, of Oklahoma, who survives him. Two sons, Vernon Smith and Newal Smith of Stamford; and two daughters; Mrs. T.N. Meador and Miss Fannie Smith of Stamford; also a grandchild, survive him. There is a brother living in Kansas City.

Deceased was a member of the Baptist church since 1933. He has lived in Haskell for 14 years, also lived for a while in Eastland county.

There was a short service at Kinney Funeral chapel at 11 a.m., Dec. 6. The body was taken to Alameda for interment, 10 miles south of Ranger, Texas, where burial was made at 3:30 p.m.