

Elmer Snell

RANGER — Elmer N. Snell, 61, of Houston and a former resident of Ranger, died Saturday in his home. Graveside services will be at 11 a.m. Tuesday in Alameda Cemetery, directed by Killingsworth Funeral Home.

Born Aug. 8, 1915, in Ranger, he married Lorrena George. He was a sheet metal worker and a member of the sheet metal local #54. He had lived in Houston since 1940.

Survivors include his wife; three sisters, Bernice Parish of Wichita Falls, Doris Dennett of Eastland and Leola Fillyaw of Odessa; and four brothers, Truman of Gorman, Gayland of Midland, Johnny of LaPorte and Glen of Wichita Falls.