

BROKEN NECK FATAL

BRECKENRIDGE, Aug, 28 - (AP) A. H. Hamilton, 25, of Ranger, died in a hospital here today of a broken neck sustained when he was thrown from the running board of an automobile south of Breckenridge Saturday night. Lights on the car failed and Hamilton was helping guide it when it hit a bridge and threw him 15 feet into a creek. The body was taken to Ranger for burial.
