

Milton "Ken" Kincanon

HICO — Milton "Ken" Kincanon, retired mechanical contractor and owner of K&K Air Conditioning and Allied Service & Equipment, died Friday, June 25, 2004.

Memorial service: 11 a.m. Saturday at First Christian Church in Stephenville.

Memorials: Charity of choice or to First Christian Church, P.O. Box 837, Stephenville, Texas 76401.

Ken was born July 30, 1933, in Duffau, Erath County, Texas to Robert E. And Jessie Kincanon. He grew up in Odessa, graduating from high school in 1951. Shortly after that, he joined the Marine Corps and served in Korea. After serving in the Marine Corps for eight years and working in oil field services, he moved to Fort Worth to attend technical college. He then became part owner of Allied Service and Equipment and later K&K Air Conditioning.

He retired in 1997, and moved near Hico to realize his dream of living in the country. Ken was an active church member of Rockwood Christian Church in Fort Worth, serving as a trustee and later served in the same position at First Christian Church in Stephenville. He was recently named deacon emeritus at First Christian.

Survivors: Wife, Pat; son, Robert Eric Kincanon of Bryan; daughter, Lisa Still and her husband, Danny, of Azle; grandchildren, Cole Still, currently serving in the U.S. Navy, stationed at Jacksonville, Florida, and Brooke Kincanon of Bryan; brother, Louis of Odessa; sisters, Leitha Simmons of Odessa, and Jaynie Snead of Show Low, Arizona; and many nieces, nephews and friends.

Rutledge-Jones Funeral Home
Hico