

Delmar Franklin Perrin

Rites for Delmar Franklin Perrin, 50, a brother of Mrs. W. P. Allen of Frederick, were in the Second Baptist church of Ranger, Texas, at 2:30 Sunday afternoon, June 15, with Jasper C. Massegee, pastor, in charge. Interment was in the Alameda cemetery.

Perrin passed away Friday, June 6, at 706 South Main, Frederick. The body was prepared for the overland trip to Ranger by the McLellan Funeral Home. The Killingsworth ambulance from Ranger came to Frederick to take the body to Ranger for the services.

Perrin was born to Frank and Mary Perrin in Eastland, Texas on July 23, 1901. He lived there until 1942 when he moved to Fort Worth. He was married to Zela Sparger and ten children were born to this union. His wife and two children preceded him in death. He later married Mae Carr.

Survivors include his wife; these sons and daughters, Mrs. Claude Young, Mrs. J. W. McBroom, and Theron Perrin, all of Odessa, Texas, Almas Perrin, Bobby Joe Perrin, Truman Perrin, and W.D. Perrin, all of Austin, Texas; sisters, Mrs. W. P. Allen, Frederick, Mrs. Virgie Lee, and Mrs. Sallie Parrish, Ranger; Texas; brothers, Henry Perrin and Luther Perrin, Ranger, Texas, Carl Perrin and John Perrin, Sundown, Texas.