

LaFreida Loyce Hammond

RANGER – Lafreida Loyce Hammond, 71, a mother, grandmother, and faithful employee of Hurst Electric for 40-plus years, went home to be with her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ on Friday, Dec. 24, 1999 at an Arlington hospital where she was fighting a lengthy illness.

Graveside service: 2 p.m. Tuesday in Alameda Cemetery, with Gary Hounshell, a nephew of Bangs, will be officiating.

Freida Loyce Hammond was born in Rochester on Oct 31, 1928, the daughter of Buck and Mable Read of Ranger, and they preceded her in death. She attended elementary and high school in Desdemona and graduated from there with the Class of 1945. Most of her adult life was spent in the Euless-Richland Hills area. She served first as a mother to her children, a grandmother, and a faithful employee of Hurst Electric for 40-plus years.

Survivors: Son, Gary Hammond and wife Aloha, of Louisville Ky.; daughter, Joni Davis and husband, Michael, of Bedford; grandchildren, Brandon, Justin, Jennifer, Jessica, and Holi of Bedford, Wesley and Ryan of Louisville; two sisters, Mary Joyce Quinn of Ranger, Regina Cooper and husband, Bill, of Whiteright. She will be missed and lovingly remembered by these and a host of nieces, nephews, and friends.
