

Leon Rodgers

RANGER — Leon Rodgers, 59, passed away Friday, Sept. 18, 1998, in Eastland.

Funeral: 11 a.m. Monday at Edwards Funeral Home. Minister Shawn Johnson officiating, assisted by Kenneth Evans. Burial: Alameda Cemetery.

Leon Rodgers was born Feb. 18, 1939, in Gorman to Dee W. and Agnes Weekes Rodgers. He was a graduate of Desdemona High School, attended Ranger College for two years and North Texas State for one year. He worked for Seldon Brown Pharmacy in Ranger while attending Ranger College, and later owned and operated a tire store in Fort Worth for several years. He had also served in the Army National Guard.

Survivors: Daughter, Amy Hoven of Monroeville, Ala.; brother, Don Rodgers of Eastland; sister, Janet Graves of Marble Falls; granddaughter, Haley Hoven; nieces, Jana Graves and Cheryl McDuffie; and nephew, Mark Graves.