

Edward Woods

RANGER — Edward L. Woods, 62, of Ranger died at 8:30 p.m. Wednesday in the veterans hospital in Big Spring. Services will be at 2 p.m. Saturday in the Killingsworth Funeral Home Chapel.

The Rev. Homer Pumphrey, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Ranger, will officiate. Burial will be in the Alameda Cemetery near Ranger.

Born Dec. 10, 1915, in Ranger, he was an Army veteran of World War II. He was a farmer and oil field laborer.

Survivors include two brothers, Alvin of Ranger and Noel of Saginaw; two sisters, Cora Jewell Owens of Wichita Falls and Lilly Caudle of Odessa; and several nieces and nephews.

Pallbearers will be Elmo Young, Joe Young, Al Larsen, Gene Ferrell, W.W. Needham, Curtis Wheat, and Jack Blackwell.