

Oma Belle Underwood

Seamstress

ANDREWS — Oma Belle Underwood of Andrews died Sunday at an Andrews hospital. She was 79.

Funeral will be at 2 p.m. today at Eastside Baptist Church in Ranger. Burial will be in Alameda Cemetery near Ranger under the direction of Edwards Funeral Home in Ranger.

Mrs. Underwood was born in Gorman. She was a seamstress and worked for General Dynamics during World War II. She was a member of Eastside Baptist Church, Independent Order of Odd Fellows No. 177, and Rebekah Lodge in Gorman.

Survivors: Husband M.D. Underwood of Ranger; son, Burl Shook of Gorman; two daughters, Launette Veal of Ranger and Vonnie Mainka of Andrews; two brothers, Aubry Wilson of Gorman and Ira Wilson of Boyd; sister, Lois Melton of Ranger; seven grandsons; and nine great-grandchildren.