

Lonnie Charles Cozart

Rock Fall Fatal to N. M. Miner

A 40-pound rock, which dropped 150 feet down a shaft of the Black Hawk Mining Corporation near Mogollon, N. M, early Sunday struck Lonnie C. Cozart, 56, miner, on the head, killing him instantly. His skull was crushed.

Circumstances of the death of Mr. Cozart were learned Monday night, when his body reached El Paso from Mogollon. Martin Mortuary ambulance left El Paso Sunday for Mogollon.

Mr. Cozart is survived by his widow, Mrs. Della Cozart, a son, Verance Cozart, and two daughters, Mrs. W. M. Warren, all of Mogollon, and Mrs. Howard Holmes, Desdemona, Texas; two brothers, Hurley Cozart, De Leon, Texas, and Sid Cozart, Percy, Ark; and three sisters, Mrs. Myrtle Kea, De Leon; Mrs. Ruth Thomason, and Mrs. Cora Mullens, both of Percy, Ark, and a niece, Mrs. Thomas Otis Miller, El Paso.

Funeral arrangements were pending with Martin Mortuary.