

Mrs. Susie Reid Dies in Hospital at Gorman

Mrs. Susie Reid, mother of an Abilene woman and a long-time resident of Eastland County, died unexpectedly Sunday morning at the Blackwell Hospital in Gorman.

Mrs. Reid suffered a stroke shortly before she was taken to the hospital.

She was the widow of the late Lee Reid, former Eastland chief of police and a rancher and farmer.

Survivors are four daughters, Mrs. Hugo Schmidt, 409 Santos St., Abilene, Mrs. Bell Parks of Anson, Mrs. Crockett Woods of Ranger, and Mrs. Arthur Weir of Kilgore; one son, Bill Reid, who lives at the old family farm near Alameda Community in Eastland County.

Funeral arrangements are pending word from two sisters, one in California and one in New Mexico. Higginbotham Funeral Home of Gorman is in charge of arrangements.
