

Virgie Lee

RANGER - Virgie M. Lee, 88, of Ranger died at 5:15 p.m. Friday in Ranger General Hospital after a lengthy illness. Services will be at 2:30 p.m. Sunday in Killingsworth-Edwards Funeral Home Chapel.

The Rev. Jerry Spear of East Side Baptist Church will officiate. Burial will be in Alameda Cemetery.

Born Jan. 5, 1891, in Tennessee, she was a member of East Side Baptist Church.

Survivors include two sons, Eugene Franklin and O.M. "Reese" Franklin, both of Ranger; a Daughter, Mrs. W. S. (Mildred) Bradley of Odessa; a Brother, Carl Perrin of Ranger; 10 grandchildren; and several great-grandchildren.