

Longtime Eastland Woman Succumbs

RANGER (RNS) — Mrs. Nancy Dell Blackwell, 84, Eastland resident 76 years, died at 2 p.m. Wednesday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Cora Love, in Lubbock. She had lived there the past eight years.

Funeral will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday at the Mesquite and Rusk Streets Church of Christ here, with Gary Beauchamp, minister, officiating. Burial will be in Alameda Cemetery, Killingsworth Funeral Home in charge.

Born April 14, 1882 in Eastland County, she married Jesse Blackwell Dec. 19, 1897 in Chaney community. He died June 12, 1950.

She was a member of Lubbock's Southside Church of Christ and was a member of the Church of Christ 69 years.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Cora Love of Lubbock; four sons, D. W. of Odessa, J. B. and E. E. (Bud) and John A, all of Ranger; one brother, John Hamilton of El Reno, Okla.; four sisters, Mrs. C. E. Dean and Mrs. Dick Ogle, both of Roby, Mrs. Maude Pratt of Avandale, Ariz., and Mrs. Tommie Blackwell of Ranger; 15 grandchildren, and 16 great-grandchildren.

Grandsons will be pallbearers.