

Jess Blackwell of Ranger Dead

RANGER, June 13, (RNS) - Funeral services for Jess Blackwell of Ranger are set for 2:30 p.m. Wednesday at Almeda tabernacle, Alameda.

Mr. Blackwell, a native of Kentucky, lived in the Chaney community for 74 years. He was a member of the Church of Christ 46 years, an elder in the church and a retired farmer and stockman

M. F. Manchester, Rising Star minister and O. G. Lanier of Ranger will conduct the service.

Survivors are the widow, four sons, E. E. of Chaney, John of Staff, J. B. of Chaney, D. W. of Ranger; one daughter, Mrs. G. C. Love of Lubbock; three brothers, Jim of Ranger, Bob of Staff, Jid of Chaney; and three sisters, Mrs. J. N. Chaney of Santa Anna, Mrs. M. L. Woods of Ranger, Mrs. A. R. Lawrence of Ranger.

Pallbearers will be A. H. Dean, Thelbert Jones, F. E. Ferrell, R. Tucker, Joe Butler, all of Chaney, V. V. Cooper, Jr., and W. E. Calvert of Ranger and Jim Howard of Moran.