

Elzie Patterson

RANGER — Elzie Burley Patterson, 90, of Olden, died at 7:45 a.m. Sunday at Shackelford County Hospital. Services will be at 2:30 p.m. Monday at Edwards Funeral Home,

Rev. Alvis Cooley, assistant minister of St. Paul United Methodist Church in Abilene, will officiate. Burial will be at Alameda Cemetery, south of Ranger.

Born March 11, 1894, in Tupelo, Miss., he moved to Eastland County in 1900. He married Jennie Herrell on Jan. 23, 1916. He was a lifelong farmer in Eastland County and a member of Olden Baptist Church.

His wife died in January 1967.

Survivors include four sons, Vernon Lee and Joe Bob of Albany, James Herrell of Seagraves, Elzie Earl of Abilene; two daughters, Lottie Clack of Peacock and Elnora Spannagel of Cement, Okla.; one sister, Quilla Sudduth of Ranger; 16 grandchildren; and 24 great-grandchildren.

Grandsons will serve as pallbearers.