

Gene Ferrell

RANGER — Gene Ferrell, 81, of Ranger, died at 10:30 p.m. Friday at Ranger General Hospital after a long illness. Services will be at 3 p.m. Sunday at Eastside Baptist Church.

The Rev. Jerry Speer, Baptist minister, will officiate, assisted by the Rev. Jim Andrews, pastor. Burial will be at Alameda Cemetery, directed by Edwards Funeral Home.

Born Aug. 29, 1903, in De Leon, he had farmed in the Chaney community until his retirement. He was a member of Eastside Baptist Church.

His wife, Emma Jane, died Nov. 20, 1980.

Survivors include two sons, Lester of Ranger and Magon of Anchorage, Alaska; a daughter, Mrs. Frank R. (Frances) Fory of Fort Worth; a brother, Ivan of De Leon; three sisters, Mrs. Clyde Price of De Leon, Mrs. Frances Pursley of Carrollton and Mrs. Edna Walker of Roscoe; five grandchildren; six great-grand-children; and several nieces and nephews.

Pallbearers will be Olen Crenshaw, Larry Stone, Alton Coffman, Jesse Speer, Mike Moth, and Lee Sigert.