

Eva Lugenia Grice

Eva Lugenia Wright Grice, 84, passed away Monday, November 8, 2010 in Marlow, Oklahoma.

Services will be held at 10:00 a.m. Wednesday, November 10, 2010, at the Marlow Church of Christ, with Jamie Beller and Ed Hull officiating. Burial will be in the Alameda Cemetery in Gorman, Texas, under the direction of Callaway-Smith-Cobb Funeral Home in Marlow, Oklahoma.

Eva was born Tuesday, August 31, 1926 in Gorman, Texas to Francis W. Wright and Zenia (Ervin) Wright. Eva lived in Gorman for a number of years before moving to Hollis, Oklahoma. She remained in Hollis for six years, after which she moved to Marlow. She had lived in Marlow for the last six years.

On May 11, 1944, she married T. A. Grice in Gorman. He preceded her in death on November 4, 1994. She worked as a nurse's aide and cook at the Westview Boys Home in Hollis, and as a nurse's aide at a nursing home. Eva had a love for God, His Word, and her family. She enjoyed cooking, singing, listening to gospel and country and western music, as well as reading and watching T.V. Eva was a member of the Marlow Church of Christ.

Survivors include a son, Mike Grice and wife, Janice of Saginaw, Texas; two daughters, Karen L. Parsons and husband, Terry of Christoval, Texas, and Elizabeth Dickens of Glen Rose, Texas; 15 grandchildren; 14 great-grandchildren; a daughter-in-law, Noreen Grice; and numerous nieces, nephews, and cousins.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her son, Roger Grice, 2 brothers and 6 sisters.

Pallbearers will be her grandsons.