

Lane Services Held at Ranger

RANGER - Funeral was held Tuesday morning in Killingsworth Funeral Chapel for Andrew J. Lane, 79, Ranger resident since 1919 who died here Sunday.

The Rev. K. C. Edmonds, pastor of East Side Baptist Church, officiated, assisted by the Rev. Ralph E. Perkins, minister of the First Baptist Church. Burial was in Alameda Cemetery.

A retired oilfield worker, Mr. Lane was born Feb. 26, 1879, in Palo Pinto County. He was a member of the Church of Christ and the Woodmen of the World.

Survivors are a son, L.L. of Monahans; two daughters, Mrs. C. B. Franklin of Odessa and Mrs. Garrett Hise of Ranger; one brother, Mort of Colorado City; a sister, Mrs. Emma Foster of Mingus; four grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.